If these walls
could talk . . .

"EVERY HOUSE HAS A STORY"

LAKE FOREST-LAKE BLUFF

LETTER FROM THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Carol Summerfield

If these walls could talk, they'd tell you how thrilling it was to see members return to the museum after a six-month closure. They'd tell you about Map Stories and Milestone Travels, two History Center-curated exhibits that opened to enthusiastic crowds. And, you'd hear the buzz about our local museum being shortlisted for the International Museums + Heritage Awards.

Throughout the year, our team worked hard to push the envelope with innovative programming, community collaborations and educational outreach.

A grant award from the Institute of Museum and Library Services and The Grainger Foundation enabled us to hire a Registrar to assist with cataloging and digitizing our growing collections.

Learn the details about our impressive year in the following pages. Thank you to the many members, supporters and volunteers who help us realize our vision every day.

Carol

If These Walls Could Talk (featured on the cover) was our most highly attended program of 2021. Previous residents, along with the current owners, shared their unique stories of growing up in the historic Clayton Mark House on Lake Road.

Map Stories and Milestone Travels

Map Stories: The hidden history in the maps of Lake Forest and Lake Bluff provided the public with an exciting and rare opportunity to see 19th and 20th century maps from our extensive collection--from hand-drawn maps of the early village to road maps.

Milestone Travels: Leaving Home to Find Yourself told stories of adventure travels, spiritual journeys, The Grand Tour, educational experiences and ancestral pursuits by local residents past and present. The exhibit was built in partnership with several nationally renowned historians and scholars who write extensively on travel history.

VIRTUAL & IN-PERSON

A combination of virtual and in-person programs kept members engaged while also growing our audience

The pandemic shutdown didn't stop us from holding our annual Trivia Night! We also presented virtual programs on Lake Forest during the 1918 Influenza Pandemic, The History of Vaccines and several other topics of local and national interest. The program that drew the largest online audience was "If These Walls Could Talk," a history of the Clayton Mark House on Lake Road.

Program & Exhibit Feedback

FROM SUSAN BENJAMIN:

So interesting, especially given today. It does give us a different perspective. The lesson seems to be that masks, what we are calling social distancing (aka hibernation) seems to work. Staying out of crowds. Made even better if a huge percentage of the population gets vaccinated. Fingers crossed. Really good program. Thanks, Laurie!

FROM SYLVIA NEUMANN:

Great Zoom program on the 1918 Pandemic. I watched the PBS program on the same topic last week but I learned so much more from Laurie's webinar!
Hope you will continue with Zoom programs after we recover from Covid...

FROM KATE MURSAU:

You did a wonderful job with your research and presentation tonight! This is so fascinating to me. My friend, Lisa Goldfayn, loved it too. She is becoming a big fan of the History Center.

FROM JEAN KIRKELEIT-DAVIS:

This was a fascinating program. Thanks to you and your colleagues for making it happen!

FROM LIZ LEUTWILER:

I love these presentations! Well done, History Center.

FROM DAVID MATTOON:

The new maps exhibit is excellent and sheds light on the history of McKinley Road.

TINA STRAUSS:

You can learn so much from maps!

DIGITAL MARKETING

Themed Social Media Campaigns

Monthly social media themes highlighted our exhibits and collection, helping to driving people to our website to explore the museum online.

RESEARCH REQUESTS

Hundreds of research requests were handled remotely and by appointment. A Registrar was hired to assist the Curator with managing the collection.

A Note from Colin Guido, Registrar

I studied History at DePaul University in Chicago. As I've always had a passion for the subject and an interest in my hometown of Lake Bluff, I was incredibly excited at the prospect of being able to combine both areas of my life at the History Center of Lake Forest-Lake Bluff.

As registrar, I'm in charge of cataloguing and digitizing all of our collections so that our museum can move more smoothly into the future.

Research ramped up in March! We received several requests for photos, including for featured displays in a new restaurant and a redesigned condo lobby. We connected a genealogy researcher whose grandfather was on staff at Dicksfield Farm with the Dick family. And house research continued to be popular, with inquiries centering on the Cerny collection, the Schweppe estate, and several other homes, one for a profile in Chicago magazine.

NEW TO THE COLLECTION

Several interesting items were accessioned to our collection.

A few items of particular note included:

- Collection of Lake Forest/Lake Bluff residence photographs, 1970s-1990s, donated by Ray Piper
- "Old Forester" World War II society newsletter, donated by Katherine Opat
- Travel Journal of Clara Herrick, 1898, donated by Mary Carton Gregory
- 1957 Map of Lake Forest, donated by Ted Moorman
- Estate Guestbook, 1930-1941, donated by Diana Sherry Miller
- Scrapbooks and photograph albums donated by the Auxiliary of the Infant Welfare Society of Chicago

EDUCATION

Partnering with LFHS World Civ Class and Planning for future collaborations

One of the most significant educational initiatives in 2021 was partnering on the 1918 Influenza Project with Kelly McKee's World Civ class

- The History Center has enjoyed a fruitful collaboration with Kelly McKee's World Civ 2 classes over the past few years. With field trips to the History Center on hold, our Curator was delighted to put together a project of such immediate significance for the class. It was striking to witness the students connect the dots between the 1918 influenza pandemic and what we face today. They were so engaged as we traced, through primary source documents and images, how Lake Foresters of 1918 faced school closures, event cancellations, mask-wearing and cough-covering informational campaigns, and the loss of loved ones - all while also making additional sacrifices to support troops and nurses overseas in World War I.
- The framing of this project really illuminated for the students that they are "living history" as well. The primary sources that the students create about their own experiences during the Covid-19 pandemic will be such an invaluable addition to the History Center archival collection - and a fruitful resource for future students delving into our local history.

The History Center also provided research support for a Lake Forest Landmarks project with the LFHS World Civ class.

And, lastly, the History Center staff organized and led a series of History Educators Roundtable discussions with teachers from area schools to help guide future planning for educational collaborations.

FACILITIES

The museum campus received a much-needed technology upgrade

A big technology boost enabled the museum to enhance our visitor and researcher experience with upgraded wifi and improved audio/visual for in-person programming.

Sponsorships from Maddie Dugan, Sabina Ewing, and Tom Hunter covered the costs of rewiring the cables through the building, upgrading the wifi bandwidth, and integrating the research center and the main museum building into one comprehensive system.

Virtual visitors also benefitted from the upgrades with enhanced viewing of our digital marketing communications and a more streamlined website experience.

FUNDRAISING

Local Legends Signature Event Raised $69,678

The History Center was delighted to celebrate the Honorable Susan Garrett as our 2021 Local Legend. Interviewed by NBC 5 political editor and award-winning journalist Carol Marin, Susan was the twelfth Legend to receive this prestigious honor.

Members, friends, colleagues and family came to congratulate Susan and learn more about her life as a State Senator and longtime Lake Forest resident. Out-of-town guests had the opportunity to send the honoree a video message to play that evening, or submit a personal note for inclusion in a keepsake book, in lieu of being able to congratulate her in person.
